

Wish to do what you have to do and soon you will be able to do mostly what you want to do.

You will not get what you rightfully deserve from the others. But you will get that and just that, what you negotiate.

Every man I meet is in some way better than me - and exactly this is what I am trying to learn from him. So every new man in my life is my chance.

I wish for three things: Enough strength to change things which can be changed. Enough patience to withstand things which can not be changed. And enough wisdom to distinguish former two cases.

There is a way which assures nearly everyone will do nearly everything for you. Arrange things cleverly such as that person wishes so.

Let us be honest to each other, let us hide only things necessary to be tactful.

Mankind progresses steadily forward, but man with his communication ways, weak and strong aspects, is still the same.

It is good to do things well - and schools teach us this thoroughly. However, better thing to do is to do the right things. We will save our lifetime and also fulfill it. Nevertheless, the best thing to do is to do the right things well - at the right time, at the right place, the right way and with the right people.
